

ANIMO, flute and piano duo

Based in the Forest of Dean in Gloucestershire U.K., Animo, has been born out of a desire to create music, programmes and experiences without boundaries and expectations, that can feed our collective desire for something soulful and extraordinary.

We have been producing and recording music since the beginning of our Duo, in 2019. During the same year we started a 5-year 'new music project' by commissioning up to five composers annually to bring something different and new to the world which is strongly rooted to our sound and style.

Following a very successful Launch at Gloucester Blackfriars in October 2019, Animo have continued to build our repertoire and expand our networking with other musicians beyond our locality. In June 2020, in the middle of the pandemic, we were invited to participate (virtually) at an International Music Conference and have one of our 'new music' works included on the accompanying CD alongside the conference's Academic Papers publication.

Animo have kept busy performing in our Home Studio with weekly livestreams, collaborating online with our composers and, more recently, finished recording 'Animo Two' which features 11 'new music' tracks which will be released later this year.
